SECTION 01

Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 In this Client Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement"), unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the meanings set out below:

Account

A trading account provided by the Company to the Participant for the purpose of participating in the Program, including Evaluation Accounts and Funded Accounts.

Automated Trading System

Any software, algorithm, script, or program — including Expert Advisors — that is capable of placing, modifying, or closing trades on the Platform without manual intervention by the Participant.

Business Day

Any day on which banks are open for general business in British Virgin Islands, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays.

Challenge

The first phase of the Evaluation in which the Participant must achieve a specified profit target within the applicable trading rules. Also referred to as "Phase 1."

Client Area

The secure online portal accessible at https://docree.com/dashboard through which the Participant may manage their Account, purchase Evaluations, view account metrics, request payouts, and access other Program-related services.

Company

Docree Demo Funding Ltd, a company incorporated in British Virgin Islands with registration number HE 000000, having its registered address at Sample Address, P.O. Box 000, Road Town, Tortola, British Virgin Islands.

Daily Loss Limit

The maximum permitted decline in Account equity on any single trading day, expressed as a percentage of the Account's starting equity for that day (measured at 00:00 server time). This limit includes realized losses, unrealized (floating) losses, swap charges, and commissions.

Drawdown

The decline in the Account's equity or balance from its peak value or initial balance, as applicable. The maximum permitted Drawdown is defined for each Evaluation plan and published on the Company's website.

Evaluation

The multi-phase assessment process operated by the Company to evaluate the Participant's trading skills, risk management ability, and consistency before granting access to a Funded Account.

Evaluation Fee

The non-refundable fee payable by the Participant for access to the Evaluation program. The Evaluation Fee is not an investment, deposit, or trading capital. It covers the cost of providing the Simulated Environment, technology infrastructure, data feeds, and evaluation services.

Expert Advisor (EA)

An automated trading program or algorithm that operates on the Platform and is capable of placing, modifying, or closing trades without manual intervention by the Participant.

Force Majeure Event

Any event beyond the reasonable control of the Company, including but not limited to natural disasters, pandemics, acts of war or terrorism, civil unrest, government actions, sanctions, exchange or market rulings, suspension of trading, communication failures, power failures, cyber-attacks, hardware or software failures, or any other event that the Company determines, acting reasonably, to be a Force Majeure.

Funded Account

A trading account allocated to the Participant upon successful completion of all Evaluation phases, through which the Participant may trade under the Company's capital (or a simulated representation thereof) and earn a share of the profits generated.

Lot

A standardized unit of measurement for the volume of a trade. The specific lot size varies by instrument and is set out on the Company's website.

Maximum Overall Loss

The maximum permitted decline in the Account's equity or balance from the initial Account balance (or from the highest recorded equity, if a trailing drawdown applies). Also referred to as the "maximum drawdown."

Minimum Trading Days

The minimum number of calendar days on which at least one trade must be opened or closed before a phase may be considered complete. This requirement ensures trading consistency.

Participant

A natural person who has registered with the Company and purchased an Evaluation, or who holds an active Funded Account. Also referred to as "you" or "the Client."

Payout

A distribution of the Participant's share of profits earned on a Funded Account, paid to the Participant in accordance with the Profit Split arrangement and the payout schedule.

Platform

The electronic trading platform(s) provided by the Company (MetaTrader 5, cTrader) through which the Participant may execute trades, view prices, and manage their Account, including any desktop, web, and mobile applications.

Profit Split

The agreed-upon percentage ratio by which profits generated on a Funded Account are divided between the Participant and the Company. The Profit Split ratio is published on the Company's website for each Evaluation plan.

Profit Target

The minimum net profit, expressed as a percentage of the initial Account balance, that the Participant must achieve to successfully complete a phase of the Evaluation.

Program

The proprietary trading evaluation program operated by Docree Demo Funding, consisting of one or more Evaluation phases followed by the allocation of a Funded Account to successful Participants.

Scaling Plan

An optional program through which successful Funded Account holders may qualify for increased account sizes based on consistent profitability and adherence to trading rules.

Simulated Environment

The virtual trading environment provided by the Company for the Evaluation phases, which replicates real market conditions using real-time or near-real-time data feeds but does not involve the execution of trades on live financial markets. No real capital is at risk in the Simulated Environment.

Trading Day

Any calendar day on which the Participant opens or closes at least one trade on their Account.

Verification

The second phase of the Evaluation in which the Participant must achieve a lower profit target to confirm trading consistency. Also referred to as "Phase 2."

1.2 In this Agreement: (a) references to "clauses" and "sections" are to clauses and sections of this Agreement; (b) headings are for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation; (c) words in the singular include the plural and vice versa; (d) references to any statute or regulation include any amendment, re-enactment, or subordinate legislation made under it; (e) references to "writing" include email and any other electronic communication; and (f) references to "including" or "includes" shall be construed as meaning "including without limitation."

1.3 In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and any other document provided by the Company (including but not limited to marketing materials, website content, or verbal representations), the terms of this Agreement shall prevail. In the event of any conflict between the English-language version of this Agreement and any translated version, the English-language version shall prevail.

1.4 The Evaluation Rules and Guidelines, the Refund Policy, the Privacy Policy, and any supplementary terms published on the Company's website form integral parts of this Agreement. The Participant is deemed to have read and accepted each of these documents upon entering into this Agreement.

SECTION 02

Scope of Agreement

2.1 This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions governing the relationship between the Participant and Docree Demo Funding (the "Company") in relation to the Participant's participation in the Program, including but not limited to the purchase of Evaluations, the use of the Simulated Environment, the allocation and operation of Funded Accounts, and the use of the Platform.

2.2 This Agreement, together with the following documents, forms the entire contractual relationship between the Participant and the Company:

- Evaluation Rules and Guidelines
- Refund Policy
- Privacy Policy
- Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Policy
- Promotional and Discount Terms (where applicable)
- Scaling Plan Terms (where applicable)
- Any supplementary terms, annexes, or schedules published on the Company's website at https://docree.com

2.3 By registering with the Company, purchasing an Evaluation, or accessing the Platform, the Participant confirms that they have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and all associated documents listed above.

2.4 This Agreement applies to all interactions between the Participant and the Company in connection with the Program. It supersedes all prior agreements, representations, understandings, and communications between the parties, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof.

2.5 The Company reserves the right to offer different Evaluation plans, account sizes, fee structures, profit targets, drawdown limits, and other parameters from time to time. The specific terms for each plan are published on the Company's website and shall be deemed incorporated into this Agreement.

SECTION 03

Nature of Services

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Docree Demo Funding is a proprietary trading evaluation company. The Company is NOT a broker, dealer, investment firm, fund manager, or financial advisor. The Company does not accept deposits for trading, does not provide investment advice, and does not manage client portfolios. The Evaluation is a skill assessment conducted in a simulated trading environment.

3.1 The Company operates a proprietary trading evaluation program designed to identify skilled traders and provide them with access to funded trading accounts. The Program assesses the Participant's trading ability, risk management discipline, and consistency through a structured evaluation process.

3.2 The Company provides the following services in connection with the Program:

- Access to a Simulated Trading Environment for the purposes of Evaluation
- Real-time or near-real-time market data feeds within the Simulated Environment
- Assessment and scoring of the Participant's trading performance
- Allocation of Funded Accounts to successful Participants
- Profit-sharing arrangements with Funded Account holders
- A Client Area for account management, metrics tracking, and payout requests
- Customer support related to the Program and Platform

3.3 The Company does not provide investment advice, personal recommendations, portfolio management, or any form of financial advisory services. Any market analysis, educational materials, commentary, or trading ideas provided by the Company are for informational and educational purposes only and shall not be construed as investment advice or a recommendation to enter into any trade.

3.4 The Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) The Evaluation phases are conducted entirely within a Simulated Environment. No real capital is placed at risk during the Evaluation, and no real financial instruments are bought or sold on behalf of the Participant.

(b) The Evaluation Fee is a payment for access to the Company's evaluation services and technology infrastructure. It is not an investment, a deposit into a trading account, or trading capital.

(c) There is no guarantee that the Participant will pass the Evaluation or receive a Funded Account. Success depends entirely on the Participant's trading performance and adherence to the rules.

(d) The relationship between the Participant and the Company is that of a service provider and client. The Participant is not an employee, agent, partner, or joint venturer of the Company.

(e) Funded Accounts may be operated on live markets or in a simulated environment, at the Company's sole discretion. The Participant's entitlement is limited to the agreed Profit Split, regardless of the execution method used by the Company.

3.5 The Company is not a regulated broker, investment firm, or financial services provider unless otherwise stated. The Program is a skill-based evaluation service, not a financial product or investment scheme.

SECTION 04

Eligibility and Registration

4.1 To be eligible to participate in the Program, the Participant must meet all of the following requirements at the time of registration and throughout their participation:

(a) Be at least eighteen (18) years of age, or the age of legal majority in the Participant's jurisdiction of residence, whichever is higher.

(b) Have full legal capacity to enter into this Agreement and be bound by its terms.

(c) Not be a resident of, or located in, any jurisdiction in which participation in the Program is prohibited or restricted by applicable law.

(d) Not be a person or entity subject to economic sanctions, trade embargoes, or similar restrictions imposed by any governmental authority.

(e) Provide accurate, complete, and truthful information during the registration process and keep such information up to date.

4.2 To register for the Program, the Participant must:

(a) Complete the registration form on the Company's website at https://docree.com or through the Client Area.

(b) Provide a valid email address, full legal name, date of birth, country of residence, and any other information required by the registration form.

(c) Create a secure password and maintain the confidentiality of their login credentials.

(d) Accept this Agreement and all associated documents.

4.3 The Company reserves the right to refuse registration or restrict access to the Program at its sole discretion, without obligation to provide reasons. Grounds for refusal may include, but are not limited to, the Participant's jurisdiction of residence, failure to provide required information, previous violations of the Company's terms, or any other reason the Company deems appropriate.

4.4 The Company may, at any time and at its sole discretion, require the Participant to undergo identity verification (Know Your Customer, or KYC) procedures. The Participant agrees to provide valid government-issued identification, proof of address, and any other documentation reasonably requested by the Company.

4.5 The Participant may only register one account with the Company. Creating multiple accounts is strictly prohibited. The Company reserves the right to merge or terminate duplicate accounts and to forfeit any profits earned on such accounts.

4.6 The Participant is responsible for ensuring that their participation in the Program complies with all laws and regulations applicable in their jurisdiction of residence. The Company makes no representation that the Program is appropriate or available for use in any particular jurisdiction.

SECTION 05

Evaluation Program Overview

5.1 The Program consists of a structured evaluation process designed to assess the Participant's trading skills. The standard evaluation follows a multi-phase model, typically consisting of:

- Phase 1 (Challenge): The Participant must demonstrate profitability by achieving a specified Profit Target while adhering to all trading rules, Drawdown limits, and the Daily Loss Limit.
- Phase 2 (Verification): The Participant must confirm their trading consistency by achieving a lower Profit Target under the same or similar conditions.
- Funded Account: Upon successful completion of all phases, the Participant is allocated a Funded Account with a defined Profit Split arrangement.

5.2 The specific parameters for each Evaluation plan — including account sizes, Profit Targets, Drawdown limits, Daily Loss Limits, Minimum Trading Days, leverage, tradable instruments, and Evaluation Fees — are published on the Company's website and may be updated from time to time.

5.3 The Company may offer one-phase, two-phase, or multi-phase evaluation models. The Participant shall select their preferred plan at the time of purchase. The terms applicable to the selected plan shall govern the Participant's Evaluation.

5.4 Each Evaluation phase is conducted in the Simulated Environment. All trades executed during the Evaluation are simulated and do not involve real market orders or real capital risk to the Participant.

5.5 To pass each phase, the Participant must:

(a) Achieve the specified Profit Target for that phase.

(b) Not breach the Daily Loss Limit on any trading day.

(c) Not breach the Maximum Overall Loss (Drawdown) at any point.

(d) Complete the required Minimum Trading Days.

(e) Comply with all trading rules and restrictions set out in this Agreement and the Evaluation Rules and Guidelines.

5.6 Upon meeting all requirements for a phase, the Participant may request advancement to the next phase (or to the Funded Account stage) through the Client Area. The Company will review the Participant's trading activity and notify them of the result within a reasonable timeframe.

5.7 The Company reserves the right to conduct additional manual reviews of the Participant's trading activity before approving advancement. This may include analysis of trading patterns, order sizes, timing, and other factors to ensure compliance with the trading rules.

5.8 If the Participant fails an Evaluation phase (by breaching a Drawdown limit, violating a trading rule, or otherwise failing to meet the requirements), the Evaluation account will be terminated. The Participant may purchase a new Evaluation to try again, subject to availability and any applicable terms.

SECTION 06

Fees and Payments

6.1 The Participant shall pay the applicable Evaluation Fee before gaining access to the Evaluation. The Evaluation Fee amount depends on the selected plan and account size and is displayed at the time of purchase on the Company's website.

6.2 The Evaluation Fee is a one-time payment for access to the Evaluation and the Simulated Environment. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) The Evaluation Fee is not an investment, deposit, or trading capital.

(b) The Evaluation Fee is charged for the provision of evaluation services and technology infrastructure, regardless of the outcome of the Evaluation.

(c) The Evaluation Fee is non-refundable by default, except as expressly provided in the Company's Refund Policy.

6.3 The Company accepts payments through the payment methods published on its website. The Participant is responsible for any transaction fees, currency conversion charges, or other costs imposed by the payment provider.

6.4 All prices are displayed in the currency specified on the Company's website. The Company reserves the right to change its fee structure at any time. Fee changes will not affect Evaluations that have already been purchased and are in progress.

6.5 The Participant is solely responsible for any taxes, duties, or levies applicable to the Evaluation Fee or any Payouts received under this Agreement. The Company does not provide tax advice and is not responsible for the Participant's tax obligations.

6.6 The Company may offer discounts, promotional codes, or special pricing from time to time. Such offers are subject to their own terms and conditions and may be withdrawn at any time at the Company's discretion.

6.7 If any payment made by the Participant is reversed, charged back, or disputed with the payment provider, the Company reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate the Participant's Account and forfeit any pending Payouts. The Participant shall be liable for any costs incurred by the Company as a result of such chargebacks or disputes.

6.8 The Company may offer account reset or retry options for an additional fee. The terms and fees for resets and retries are published on the Company's website and may be updated from time to time.

SECTION 07

Simulated Trading Environment

7.1 The Evaluation phases of the Program are conducted in a Simulated Environment that replicates real market conditions. The Simulated Environment uses real-time or near-real-time price data feeds to provide a realistic trading experience.

7.2 The Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) All trades executed during the Evaluation are simulated. No real financial instruments are bought or sold, and no real capital is placed at risk.

(b) The Simulated Environment may not perfectly replicate live market conditions. Differences may exist in execution speed, liquidity, slippage, spread widths, and other factors.

(c) The Company provides the Simulated Environment on an "as is" and "as available" basis. The Company does not guarantee uninterrupted access, error-free operation, or specific performance characteristics.

(d) Market data feeds used in the Simulated Environment are obtained from third-party providers. The Company is not responsible for the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of such data.

(e) Results achieved in the Simulated Environment are not indicative of results that would be achieved in live market conditions.

7.3 The Company reserves the right to adjust trading conditions in the Simulated Environment at any time, including but not limited to spreads, commissions, swap rates, leverage, available instruments, and trading hours. Such adjustments may be made to reflect changing market conditions or for operational reasons.

7.4 The Simulated Environment may experience interruptions, delays, or outages due to scheduled maintenance, technical issues, or circumstances beyond the Company's control. The Company will use reasonable efforts to minimize such disruptions but shall not be liable for any losses or consequences arising from them.

7.5 The Participant shall not attempt to exploit any technical limitations, bugs, or deficiencies in the Simulated Environment. Any profits generated through the exploitation of technical flaws may be voided and the Participant's account may be terminated.

SECTION 08

Funded Account Terms

8.1 Upon successful completion of all Evaluation phases and approval by the Company, the Participant will be offered a Funded Account. The Funded Account will be configured with the account size corresponding to the Participant's selected Evaluation plan.

8.2 The Funded Account may be operated on live financial markets or in a simulated environment that mirrors live market conditions, at the Company's sole discretion. The Company is not obligated to disclose the execution method used. The Participant's entitlement is limited to the agreed Profit Split, regardless of the method of execution.

8.3 The Funded Account remains the property of the Company. The Participant does not own, and has no proprietary interest in, the capital allocated to the Funded Account. The Participant's sole entitlement is to the Profit Split as defined in this Agreement.

8.4 All trading rules, Drawdown limits, Daily Loss Limits, and prohibited practices that apply during the Evaluation also apply to the Funded Account unless the Company specifies otherwise for the applicable plan.

8.5 The Funded Account is personal to the Participant and may not be transferred, assigned, sublicensed, or shared with any other person or entity. The Participant must be the sole operator of the Funded Account at all times.

8.6 The Company may impose additional conditions on Funded Accounts, including but not limited to:

- Maximum position size limits
- Maximum number of simultaneously open positions
- Restrictions on holding positions over weekends or during major news events
- Requirements to close all positions before requesting a Payout
- Minimum activity requirements (e.g., at least one trade per 30-day period)

8.7 If the Participant breaches any Drawdown limit, trading rule, or other condition applicable to the Funded Account, the Company reserves the right to immediately terminate the Funded Account. In such cases, the Participant shall forfeit any unrealized profits and any pending Payout requests.

8.8 The Company may offer a Scaling Plan that allows successful Funded Account holders to increase their account size over time. Eligibility for scaling is based on consistent profitability, adherence to trading rules, and the Participant's track record. The specific scaling criteria are published on the Company's website.

8.9 The Company reserves the sole discretion to approve or deny Funded Account applications, scaling requests, and continued access to Funded Accounts. The Company may take into account factors beyond published criteria, including the Participant's overall trading behavior, risk profile, and compliance history.

SECTION 09

Profit Split and Payouts

9.1 Profits earned on the Funded Account are shared between the Participant and the Company according to the Profit Split ratio specified for the Participant's selected Evaluation plan. The Profit Split percentage is published on the Company's website and forms part of the contractual terms.

9.2 Profit is calculated as the net realized profit on the Funded Account, taking into account all closed trades, swap charges, commissions, and any other applicable fees. Unrealized (floating) profit from open positions is not included in the Payout calculation until the positions are closed.

9.3 Payouts are processed on a regular schedule as specified on the Company's website (e.g., bi-weekly, monthly, or on-demand). The first Payout may be subject to a waiting period following the activation of the Funded Account, as specified for the applicable plan.

9.4 To request a Payout, the Participant must:

(a) Submit a Payout request through the Client Area.

(b) Close all open positions on the Funded Account prior to requesting the Payout, unless the Company's rules permit otherwise.

(c) Have completed any applicable identity verification (KYC) requirements.

(d) Have no pending investigations, disputes, or rule violation reviews on their account.

9.5 The Company will process approved Payout requests within a reasonable timeframe, typically within five (5) to ten (10) Business Days. Processing times may vary depending on the payment method selected and the Participant's jurisdiction.

9.6 Payouts may be made via bank transfer, electronic wallet, cryptocurrency, or any other method offered by the Company from time to time. The available payment methods are displayed in the Client Area. The Company reserves the right to change the available payment methods at any time.

9.7 The Company may set minimum Payout thresholds. Payout requests below the minimum threshold may be declined or carried forward to the next payout cycle.

9.8 The Company reserves the right to withhold, delay, or reverse a Payout if:

(a) There is a suspected violation of the trading rules or this Agreement.

(b) The Participant's account is under investigation.

(c) The Participant has not completed required identity verification.

(d) The profits were generated through prohibited trading practices or exploitation of technical flaws.

(e) The Company is required to do so by applicable law, regulation, or order of a competent authority.

9.9 Any fees or charges imposed by payment providers in connection with the Payout shall be borne by the Participant unless otherwise specified by the Company.

9.10 The Participant acknowledges that the Profit Split and Payouts are not guaranteed. The Participant's entitlement to a Payout is conditional on compliance with all applicable rules, verification of trading activity, and the Company's approval.

SECTION 10

Drawdown Rules and Risk Limits

CRITICAL

Drawdown limits are the most critical risk management rules in the Program. Breaching any Drawdown limit results in immediate account termination. These rules apply to both Evaluation accounts and Funded Accounts.

Daily Loss Limit

10.1 The Daily Loss Limit is the maximum amount the Participant's account equity may decline on any single trading day. It is calculated as a percentage of the Account's starting equity at the beginning of the trading day (00:00 server time).

10.2 The Daily Loss Limit calculation includes all realized losses, unrealized (floating) losses, swap charges, and commissions incurred during the trading day. If the Account equity reaches the Daily Loss Limit threshold at any point during the day, the Account is considered in violation.

10.3 The Company may automatically close all open positions and disable trading on the Account if the Daily Loss Limit is reached or breached. The Participant must not rely on this automatic mechanism and must actively manage their risk at all times.

Maximum Overall Loss (Drawdown)

10.4 The Maximum Overall Loss is the maximum amount the Participant's Account balance or equity may decline from the initial Account balance at any point during the Evaluation or Funded Account period.

10.5 The Maximum Overall Loss is calculated based on the initial Account balance and does not trail or adjust upward with profits unless the applicable Evaluation plan specifies a trailing drawdown mechanism.

10.6 Where a trailing drawdown applies, the drawdown limit moves upward as the Account equity increases but never moves downward. The trailing mechanism typically stops once the drawdown limit reaches the initial balance level (break-even), after which it becomes a static drawdown. The specific trailing mechanism is described for each plan on the Company's website.

Consequences of Breach

10.7 Breaching either the Daily Loss Limit or the Maximum Overall Loss results in immediate and automatic termination of the Account. There are no exceptions, warnings, or grace periods.

10.8 If a Drawdown limit is breached on an Evaluation account, the Evaluation is considered failed. The Participant may purchase a new Evaluation to retry.

10.9 If a Drawdown limit is breached on a Funded Account, the Funded Account is terminated and the Participant forfeits any unrealized profits and pending Payout requests. The Participant may retain any Payouts that were already processed and disbursed prior to the breach.

10.10 The Company's risk monitoring systems operate on a best-efforts basis. The Participant is responsible for monitoring their own risk at all times and must not rely on the Company's systems to prevent Drawdown breaches.

SECTION 11

Trading Rules and Restrictions

11.1 The Participant must comply with all trading rules and restrictions set out in this Agreement, the Evaluation Rules and Guidelines, and any plan-specific terms published on the Company's website.

11.2 The following general trading rules apply to all Accounts unless otherwise specified for the applicable plan:

(a) The Participant must not exceed the maximum lot size or maximum exposure limits specified for their Account.

(b) The Participant must trade only the instruments that are available on their Account as specified for their plan.

(c) The Participant must observe all applicable trading hours for each instrument.

(d) The Participant must achieve the Minimum Trading Days requirement before a phase can be considered complete.

11.3 The Company may impose restrictions on trading during specific market events, including but not limited to:

- Major economic news releases (e.g., non-farm payrolls, central bank decisions)
- Market opening and closing periods
- Periods of extreme volatility or low liquidity
- Weekends and market holidays

11.4 Where the Company imposes news-trading restrictions, the specific rules (such as the blackout period before and after a news event) are published on the Company's website or in the Evaluation Rules and Guidelines.

11.5 The Participant must not use trading strategies that are designed primarily to exploit the Simulated Environment rather than to trade genuine market opportunities. Such strategies are considered prohibited trading practices as defined in Section 12.

11.6 The Company reserves the right to add, modify, or remove trading rules at any time. Changes will be communicated through the Company's website, email, or the Client Area. Changes will not apply retroactively to Evaluations or Funded Accounts already in progress unless necessary to prevent abuse or required by law.

SECTION 12

Prohibited Trading Practices

WARNING

Engaging in any of the prohibited trading practices listed below will result in immediate account termination, forfeiture of all profits, and possible permanent ban from the Program. The Company's determination regarding prohibited practices is final.

12.1 The following trading practices are strictly prohibited on all Accounts, whether during the Evaluation or on a Funded Account:

Account Manipulation

12.2 The Participant shall not:

(a) Share, sell, lease, or transfer their Account or login credentials to any other person or entity.

(b) Allow any third party to trade on their Account, whether directly or through remote access, copy trading, or any other means.

(c) Operate multiple Accounts under different identities or use fictitious information to register additional accounts.

(d) Coordinate trades across multiple Accounts (whether their own or belonging to different Participants) to hedge risk or manipulate outcomes.

(e) Copy trades from another Participant's Account or allow their trades to be copied to another Participant's Account within the Program.

Exploitative Strategies

12.3 The Participant shall not engage in strategies that exploit the Simulated Environment or the Company's systems, including but not limited to:

(a) Latency Arbitrage: Exploiting delays in price feed updates to trade at stale prices before the system reflects current market prices.

(b) Data Feed Manipulation: Using external data sources, technologies, or techniques to gain an unfair advantage over the Company's price feed.

(c) Gap Trading Exploitation: Placing trades solely to exploit weekend or session gaps in a manner that would not be replicable in live market conditions.

(d) Server Overloading: Submitting an excessive number of orders, requests, or connections with the intent to overload or disrupt the Company's systems.

(e) Tick Scalping: Opening and closing trades within extremely short timeframes (e.g., under a few seconds) solely to exploit execution mechanics or price feed latency in the Simulated Environment.

Hedging Abuse

12.4 The following hedging-related practices are prohibited:

(a) Hedging across multiple Accounts — opening opposing positions in the same or correlated instruments on different Accounts (whether owned by the same or different Participants) to guarantee a positive outcome on at least one Account.

(b) Using third-party accounts, brokers, or platforms to hedge positions taken on the Company's Accounts.

(c) Group hedging — coordinating with other Participants to take opposing positions as a collective strategy.

High-Frequency and Abusive Trading

12.5 The Participant shall not engage in:

(a) High-frequency trading (HFT) strategies that rely on speed advantages, co-location, or direct market access that is not representative of the Simulated Environment.

(b) Martingale strategies or other progressive position-sizing methods that disproportionately increase risk after losses.

(c) Grid trading systems that place a large number of pending orders at fixed intervals to exploit volatility in a manner inconsistent with genuine trading.

Other Prohibited Practices

12.6 The Participant shall not:

(a) Use any software, tool, or technique to reverse-engineer, decompile, or otherwise analyze the Company's systems, algorithms, or risk management mechanisms.

(b) Engage in any form of market manipulation, including spoofing (placing orders with the intent to cancel before execution) or layering.

(c) Use insider information or any non-public information to trade.

(d) Engage in any conduct that the Company reasonably determines to be dishonest, fraudulent, or contrary to the spirit of the Program.

12.7 The Company employs sophisticated monitoring tools and analytical systems to detect prohibited trading practices. The Company may review trading activity at any time, including after a Payout has been requested or processed.

12.8 If the Company determines that the Participant has engaged in prohibited trading practices, the Company may, at its sole discretion:

- Void any trades associated with the prohibited practice
- Reverse or withhold any Payouts derived from such trades
- Terminate the Participant's Account immediately
- Ban the Participant from the Program permanently
- Take any other action the Company deems appropriate

SECTION 13

Expert Advisors and Automated Trading

13.1 The Company may permit the use of Expert Advisors (EAs) and other Automated Trading Systems on Accounts, subject to the conditions set out in this section. The Company's website specifies which plans allow automated trading.

13.2 Where automated trading is permitted, the following conditions apply:

(a) The Participant must be the sole owner and operator of the Automated Trading System. Shared, rented, or third-party managed EAs may be used only if the Participant has a legitimate license and is not sharing the EA with other Participants for the purpose of coordinated trading.

(b) The Automated Trading System must not engage in any of the prohibited trading practices described in Section 12.

(c) The Participant is fully responsible for the actions of their Automated Trading System. The Company will not reverse trades, adjust losses, or provide exceptions for trades executed by a malfunctioning EA.

(d) The same EA or trading strategy must not be used across multiple Accounts (whether owned by the same Participant or different Participants) in a manner that results in coordinated or mirrored trading activity.

13.3 The Company reserves the right to disable automated trading on any Account at any time if the Company suspects that the Automated Trading System is being used to exploit the Simulated Environment, circumvent trading rules, or engage in prohibited practices.

13.4 The Participant acknowledges that automated trading carries inherent risks, including but not limited to software bugs, connectivity issues, and unintended trading behavior. The Company shall not be liable for any losses incurred as a result of the Participant's use of an Automated Trading System.

13.5 The Company may require the Participant to disclose the name, source, or logic of their Automated Trading System as part of an investigation into trading activity. Refusal to cooperate with such requests may result in account suspension or termination.

SECTION 14

Account Management

14.1 The Participant may access and manage their Account through the Client Area at https://docree.com/dashboard. The Client Area provides access to account metrics, Evaluation status, Payout history, and other Program-related functions.

14.2 The Participant is solely responsible for maintaining the security and confidentiality of their login credentials (username, password, and any two-factor authentication codes). The Company shall not be liable for any unauthorized access to the Participant's Account resulting from the Participant's failure to protect their credentials.

14.3 The Participant must immediately notify the Company if they suspect any unauthorized access to their Account or if their login credentials have been compromised. Notifications should be sent to hello@docree.com.

14.4 The Participant shall keep their registration information up to date, including their email address, phone number, and country of residence. The Company may rely on the information on file and shall not be liable for any consequences arising from outdated or incorrect information.

14.5 If the Participant does not place any trade on their Account for a consecutive period of thirty (30) calendar days, the Company reserves the right to consider the Account inactive and may:

(a) For Evaluation accounts: terminate the Evaluation without refund.

(b) For Funded Accounts: suspend or terminate the Funded Account.

14.6 The Company may send notifications, alerts, and reminders to the Participant regarding their Account activity, Drawdown levels, upcoming deadlines, and other matters. Such notifications are provided as a courtesy only, and the Participant must not rely solely on them for risk management.

14.7 The Participant may request the closure of their Account at any time by contacting the Company at hello@docree.com. Account closure does not entitle the Participant to a refund of the Evaluation Fee unless expressly provided by the Company's Refund Policy.

SECTION 15

Intellectual Property

15.1 All intellectual property rights in the Platform, the Company's website, the Client Area, the Simulated Environment, and all content, software, materials, trademarks, logos, trade names, and proprietary technology provided by Docree Demo Funding are owned by or licensed to the Company.

15.2 The Participant is granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to use the Platform, the Client Area, and the Simulated Environment solely for the purpose of participating in the Program in accordance with this Agreement.

15.3 The Participant shall not:

(a) Copy, reproduce, distribute, publish, or create derivative works based on any Company materials without the prior written consent of the Company.

(b) Reverse-engineer, decompile, disassemble, or otherwise attempt to derive the source code of any software provided by the Company.

(c) Use the Company's trademarks, logos, or trade names without the prior written consent of the Company.

(d) Remove, alter, or obscure any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary notices from any Company materials.

15.4 The Participant retains ownership of their own trading strategies, Expert Advisors, and other intellectual property created by them. However, the Company may analyze trading patterns and anonymized trading data for the purposes of system improvement, risk management, and detection of prohibited practices.

15.5 Any feedback, suggestions, or ideas submitted by the Participant to Docree Demo Funding may be used by the Company without any obligation of compensation, attribution, or confidentiality.

SECTION 16

Representations and Warranties

16.1 By entering into this Agreement, the Participant represents and warrants that:

(a) They are of legal age and have full legal capacity to enter into this Agreement.

(b) All information provided during registration and throughout their participation is accurate, complete, and not misleading.

(c) They are not resident in, or a citizen of, any jurisdiction in which participation in the Program is prohibited by applicable law.

(d) They are not subject to any economic sanctions, trade embargoes, or similar restrictions.

(e) The funds used to pay the Evaluation Fee are from a legitimate source and are not derived from any illegal or unlawful activity.

(f) They have read, understood, and accepted this Agreement and all associated documents.

(g) They understand the risks associated with leveraged trading, including the risk of significant losses, and have the knowledge and experience necessary to participate in the Program.

(h) They are participating in the Program on their own behalf and not as an agent, representative, or nominee of any third party.

(i) They will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in connection with their participation in the Program.

16.2 The representations and warranties set out above are deemed to be repeated each time the Participant accesses the Platform, places a trade, or requests a Payout.

16.3 If any representation or warranty made by the Participant is found to be false, inaccurate, or misleading, the Company reserves the right to terminate the Participant's Account, forfeit any pending Payouts, and take any other action it deems appropriate.

SECTION 17

Participant Obligations

17.1 The Participant shall:

(a) Comply with all terms and conditions of this Agreement and all associated documents at all times.

(b) Trade in a responsible manner, exercising sound risk management and adhering to all applicable trading rules.

(c) Monitor their Account regularly, including Drawdown levels, open positions, and compliance with the Daily Loss Limit.

(d) Maintain the security of their login credentials and not share them with any third party.

(e) Keep their registration information accurate and up to date.

(f) Promptly respond to any requests from the Company for information, documentation, or verification.

(g) Not engage in any prohibited trading practices as defined in Section 12.

(h) Not use the Program for any illegal, fraudulent, or unlawful purpose.

(i) Not make any public statements or representations that could be construed as speaking on behalf of the Company without prior written consent.

(j) Comply with all applicable laws and regulations in their jurisdiction of residence.

17.2 The Participant acknowledges that failure to comply with any of the obligations set out above may result in account suspension, termination, forfeiture of profits, and any other remedies available to the Company under this Agreement or applicable law.

SECTION 18

Company Rights

18.1 Without prejudice to any other rights the Company may have under this Agreement or applicable law, the Company reserves the right to:

(a) Suspend, restrict, or terminate any Account at any time and for any reason, including but not limited to suspected violations of this Agreement, suspected fraud, or regulatory requirements.

(b) Investigate any trading activity on any Account, including by accessing trading records, server logs, IP addresses, device information, and any other data available to the Company.

(c) Void, reverse, or adjust any trades that the Company determines were executed in violation of this Agreement, the trading rules, or as a result of prohibited practices.

(d) Withhold, delay, or reverse any Payouts pending the outcome of an investigation or in the event of a rule violation.

(e) Modify the trading conditions, including spreads, commissions, swap rates, leverage, available instruments, and trading hours.

(f) Close any or all open positions on the Participant's Account, with or without prior notice, if the Company determines that the Account is at risk of breaching a Drawdown limit or if the Company suspects prohibited activity.

(g) Refuse to process any Payout request if the Company has reasonable grounds to believe that the profits were generated through prohibited means.

(h) Request additional information, documentation, or verification from the Participant at any time.

(i) Permanently ban any Participant from the Program if the Company determines that the Participant has engaged in fraud, serious misconduct, or repeated violations of this Agreement.

18.2 The Company shall exercise its rights under this section in good faith and, where practicable, shall provide the Participant with notice and an explanation of the reasons for its actions. However, the Company is not obligated to provide advance notice where doing so would compromise an investigation or the integrity of the Program.

18.3 The Participant acknowledges that the Company's decisions regarding account suspension, termination, trade adjustments, and Payout withholding are made at the Company's sole discretion and are final, subject only to the complaints procedure set out in Section 20.

SECTION 19

Refund Policy

19.1 The Company's Refund Policy is published as a separate document on the Company's website at https://docree.com. The Refund Policy forms an integral part of this Agreement.

19.2 By default, the Evaluation Fee is non-refundable. Refunds may be available in limited circumstances as expressly set out in the Refund Policy, such as:

(a) The Participant has not placed any trade on the Evaluation account and requests a refund within the timeframe specified in the Refund Policy.

(b) A technical error attributable to the Company prevented the Participant from accessing the Evaluation.

(c) The Company offers a refundable fee option for certain Evaluation plans, subject to the conditions specified in the Refund Policy.

19.3 Refund requests must be submitted through the process described in the Refund Policy. The Company will review each request and respond within the timeframe specified therein.

19.4 The Participant acknowledges that passing the Evaluation and receiving a Funded Account does not constitute grounds for a refund of the Evaluation Fee, unless the applicable plan expressly provides for a fee refund upon successful completion.

19.5 Refunds, where approved, will be processed using the same payment method used for the original purchase, unless otherwise agreed by the Company.

SECTION 20

Complaints and Disputes

20.1 The Company is committed to resolving complaints and disputes fairly and promptly. Any Participant who is dissatisfied with any aspect of the Company's services may submit a complaint through the procedure set out in this section.

20.2 Complaints should be submitted in writing to complaints@docree.com. The complaint should include:

(a) The Participant's full name and Account number.

(b) A clear and detailed description of the issue or dispute.

(c) Any supporting evidence or documentation.

(d) The resolution or remedy sought by the Participant.

20.3 The Company will acknowledge receipt of the complaint within five (5) Business Days and will endeavor to provide a full response within twenty (20) Business Days. If the complaint is complex and requires additional time, the Company will inform the Participant of the expected timeframe.

20.4 The Company will investigate the complaint impartially and will consider all relevant evidence and information. The Participant may be asked to provide additional information during the investigation.

20.5 If the Participant is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, they may escalate the matter to the Company's senior management by writing to compliance@docree.com.

20.6 The parties agree to attempt to resolve any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement through good-faith negotiation before commencing any formal legal proceedings.

SECTION 21

Limitation of Liability

21.1 To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Company, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and affiliates shall not be liable to the Participant for any:

(a) Indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including loss of profits, loss of revenue, loss of data, or loss of business opportunities, regardless of the theory of liability.

(b) Losses arising from the Participant's trading decisions, strategies, or performance during the Evaluation or on a Funded Account.

(c) Losses arising from the failure of the Participant to comply with this Agreement, the trading rules, or any applicable laws.

(d) Losses arising from unauthorized access to the Participant's Account due to the Participant's failure to safeguard their login credentials.

(e) Losses arising from technical issues, interruptions, or failures of the Platform, the Simulated Environment, or any third-party systems.

(f) Losses arising from delays, errors, or inaccuracies in market data feeds provided by third-party sources.

(g) Losses arising from the actions or inactions of third-party payment providers, technology providers, or data vendors.

21.2 In no event shall the Company's total aggregate liability to the Participant under or in connection with this Agreement exceed the total amount of Evaluation Fees paid by the Participant to the Company in the twelve (12) months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

21.3 The limitations of liability set out in this section shall apply regardless of whether the liability arises in contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, or any other legal theory.

21.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude or limit the Company's liability for: (a) death or personal injury caused by the Company's negligence; (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or (c) any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited by applicable law.

21.5 The Participant acknowledges that the Evaluation Fee represents a fair assessment of the risk assumed by the Company in providing the Program, and that the limitations of liability set out in this section are reasonable and proportionate.

SECTION 22

Indemnification

22.1 The Participant agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and affiliates from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of or in connection with:

(a) Any breach of this Agreement by the Participant.

(b) Any breach of the Participant's representations and warranties.

(c) Any violation of applicable laws or regulations by the Participant.

(d) Any claim by a third party arising from the Participant's actions or omissions in connection with the Program.

(e) Any unauthorized use of the Participant's Account.

(f) Any use of prohibited trading practices by the Participant.

22.2 This indemnification obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the closure of the Participant's Account.

SECTION 23

Force Majeure

23.1 The Company shall not be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Agreement to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event.

23.2 Force Majeure Events include, but are not limited to:

- Natural disasters (earthquakes, floods, hurricanes, tsunamis)

- Pandemics, epidemics, or public health emergencies
- Acts of war, armed conflict, terrorism, or civil unrest
- Government actions, sanctions, embargoes, or regulatory changes
- Exchange or market closures, suspensions, or extraordinary market conditions
- Failure of telecommunications, internet, or power infrastructure
- Cyber-attacks, hacking, or other security incidents
- Failure of third-party systems, data providers, or technology vendors
- Any other event beyond the reasonable control of the Company

23.3 In the event of a Force Majeure Event, the Company may, at its sole discretion:

(a) Suspend or restrict access to the Platform, the Simulated Environment, or the Client Area.

(b) Close or adjust open positions on any Account.

(c) Extend deadlines, time limits, or other requirements applicable to an Evaluation.

(d) Delay the processing of Payouts or other obligations.

(e) Take any other action it deems necessary to protect the integrity of the Program.

23.4 The Company will use reasonable efforts to resume normal operations as soon as practicable following a Force Majeure Event and will notify Participants of any actions taken.

SECTION 24

Termination

24.1 This Agreement shall remain in effect until terminated by either party in accordance with this section.

Termination by the Participant

24.2 The Participant may terminate this Agreement and close their Account at any time by providing written notice to the Company at hello@docree.com. Termination by the Participant does not entitle them to a refund of the Evaluation Fee unless expressly provided by the Refund Policy.

24.3 Upon termination by the Participant, the Company will process any outstanding Payout requests for which the Participant is eligible, subject to the completion of any pending reviews or investigations.

Termination by the Company

24.4 The Company may terminate this Agreement and close the Participant's Account immediately, without prior notice, if:

(a) The Participant breaches any material term of this Agreement.

(b) The Participant breaches any Drawdown limit or trading rule.

(c) The Participant engages in prohibited trading practices.

(d) The Participant provides false, inaccurate, or misleading information.

(e) The Participant fails to complete required identity verification.

(f) The Participant is or becomes a resident of a restricted jurisdiction.

(g) The Company is required to do so by applicable law, regulation, or order of a competent authority.

(h) The Company reasonably suspects fraud, money laundering, or other illegal activity.

(i) The Participant's Account has been inactive for a prolonged period as defined in Section 14.

24.5 The Company may also terminate this Agreement by providing the Participant with at least thirty (30) days' written notice, for any reason or no reason. In such cases, the Company will process any outstanding Payout requests for which the Participant is eligible.

Effects of Termination

24.6 Upon termination of this Agreement, regardless of the reason:

(a) All licenses granted to the Participant under this Agreement shall immediately terminate.

(b) The Participant's access to the Platform, the Simulated Environment, and the Client Area shall be revoked.

(c) All open positions on the Participant's Account may be closed by the Company.

(d) Any pending Evaluation will be terminated.

(e) Sections of this Agreement that by their nature should survive termination (including Intellectual Property, Limitation of Liability, Indemnification, Governing Law, and General Provisions) shall continue in full force and effect.

24.7 Where the Participant's Account is terminated due to a rule violation or prohibited trading practice, the Company reserves the right to forfeit any unrealized profits and withhold any pending Payout requests.

SECTION 25

Privacy and Data Protection

25.1 The Company collects, processes, and stores personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy, which is published on the Company's website at https://docree.com and forms an integral part of this Agreement.

25.2 By registering with the Company and participating in the Program, the Participant consents to the collection and processing of their personal data as described in the Privacy Policy, to the extent that consent is the applicable legal basis.

25.3 The Company may collect and process the following categories of personal data in connection with the Program:

- Identity information (name, date of birth, nationality, government-issued ID)
- Contact information (email address, phone number, postal address)
- Financial information (payment details, transaction history)
- Trading data (trade history, Account metrics, performance data)
- Technical data (IP addresses, device information, browser type, login timestamps)
- Verification documents (identity documents, proof of address)
- Communication records (support tickets, emails, chat logs)

25.4 The Company processes personal data for the following purposes:

(a) Providing the Program and related services.

(b) Verifying the Participant's identity and eligibility.

(c) Processing payments and Payouts.

(d) Monitoring compliance with this Agreement and the trading rules.

(e) Detecting and preventing fraud, prohibited practices, and illegal activity.

(f) Complying with applicable laws and regulatory requirements.

(g) Improving the Company's services and technology.

(h) Communicating with the Participant about their Account and the Program.

25.5 The Company implements appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized access, loss, destruction, or alteration. However, no method of data transmission or storage is completely secure, and the Company cannot guarantee absolute security.

25.6 The Participant may exercise their rights under applicable data protection laws by contacting the Company's Data Protection Officer at dpo@docree.com. Applicable rights may include the right to access, rectify, delete, or restrict the processing of personal data, subject to applicable legal requirements.

25.7 The Company processes personal data in accordance with applicable data protection laws and regulations and any other applicable data protection legislation.

25.8 The Company may share personal data with third parties, including payment processors, technology providers, identity verification services, and regulatory authorities, as described in the Privacy Policy.

SECTION 26

Anti-Money Laundering

26.1 The Company is committed to complying with applicable anti-money laundering (AML), counter-terrorism financing (CTF), and sanctions legislation. The Participant acknowledges and agrees to cooperate fully with the Company's AML procedures.

26.2 The Company may, at any time, require the Participant to:

(a) Provide valid government-issued identification (passport, national ID card, or driver's license).

(b) Provide proof of residential address (utility bill, bank statement, or official correspondence dated within the last three months).

(c) Provide proof of the source of funds used to pay the Evaluation Fee.

(d) Complete a declaration regarding beneficial ownership and politically exposed person (PEP) status.

(e) Provide any other documentation reasonably required by the Company for AML compliance purposes.

26.3 The Company reserves the right to suspend or terminate the Participant's Account and withhold any Payouts until satisfactory verification has been completed.

26.4 The Company may report suspicious activity to the relevant authorities without notifying the Participant, where required or permitted by applicable law.

26.5 Payouts will only be processed to accounts or payment methods that are in the Participant's own name. The Company will not process Payouts to third-party accounts.

26.6 The Participant represents and warrants that they are not, and will not become, a person or entity subject to economic sanctions or trade embargoes imposed by any governmental authority. The Participant agrees to notify the Company immediately if their sanctions status changes.

SECTION 27

Communication and Notices

27.1 The Company may communicate with the Participant by any of the following methods:

- Email to the address registered on the Participant's Account
- Notifications within the Client Area at https://docree.com/dashboard
- Announcements on the Company's website at https://docree.com
- Messages through the Platform

The Company may also communicate by telephone at +1 000 000 0000 where appropriate.

27.2 Any notice, document, or communication sent by the Company to the Participant shall be deemed received:

(a) If sent by email: at the time of transmission, provided no delivery failure notification is received.

(b) If published on the Company's website or Client Area: at the time of publication.

(c) If sent by post: five (5) Business Days after the date of posting.

27.3 The Participant is responsible for regularly checking their email, the Client Area, and the Company's website for important communications and updates. Failure to read or act upon a communication does not invalidate it.

27.4 Any notice from the Participant to the Company must be sent in writing to hello@docree.com or through the support channels provided in the Client Area.

27.5 The Participant consents to receiving electronic communications from the Company in connection with their Account and the Program. The Participant may opt out of marketing communications at any time, but may not opt out of transactional communications related to their Account.

SECTION 28

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

28.1 This Agreement and any dispute arising out of or in connection with it (including any non-contractual disputes) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of British Virgin Islands.

28.2 The courts of British Virgin Islands shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. The Participant irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such courts.

28.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company reserves the right to commence proceedings in any jurisdiction in which the Participant is resident or has assets, or in any other jurisdiction it deems appropriate.

28.4 The Participant agrees that any claims or causes of action arising out of or related to this Agreement must be filed within one (1) year after the cause of action accrues. Any claim filed after this period shall be time-barred.

SECTION 29

Amendments

29.1 The Company reserves the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Agreement at any time by publishing the updated version on the Company's website.

29.2 The Company will notify the Participant of material amendments by email or through the Client Area at least fourteen (14) calendar days before the amendments take effect, unless a shorter notice period is required by law or necessary to prevent abuse.

29.3 Continued participation in the Program after the effective date of any amendment constitutes the Participant's acceptance of the amended terms. If the Participant does not agree with any amendment, they must cease using the Company's services and terminate their Account before the amendment takes effect.

29.4 Amendments will not apply retroactively to Evaluations or Funded Accounts that are already in progress at the time of the amendment, unless the amendment is required by applicable law or is necessary to prevent abuse of the Program.

29.5 The Participant is responsible for reviewing the most current version of this Agreement, which is available at all times on the Company's website at https://docree.com.

SECTION 30

General Provisions

Entire Agreement

30.1 This Agreement, together with all documents referenced herein, constitutes the entire agreement between the Participant and the Company in relation to the Program and supersedes all prior agreements, representations, and understandings between the parties, whether oral or written.

Severability

30.2 If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, that provision shall be severed from this Agreement and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect. The invalid provision shall be replaced with a valid provision that most closely reflects the original intent.

Waiver

30.3 No failure or delay by the Company in exercising any right, power, or remedy under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or remedy preclude any further exercise of that or any other right, power, or remedy.

Assignment

30.4 The Participant may not assign, transfer, or delegate any of their rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Company.

30.5 The Company may assign, transfer, or delegate its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any affiliate, successor, or third-party acquirer without the Participant's consent, provided that such assignment does not materially diminish the Participant's rights under this Agreement.

No Third-Party Rights

30.6 This Agreement does not confer any rights on any person or entity that is not a party to this Agreement. No third party shall have the right to enforce any term of this Agreement.

Relationship of Parties

30.7 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a partnership, joint venture, employment relationship, or agency relationship between the Participant and the Company. The Participant is an independent contractor and not an employee, agent, or representative of the Company.

Notices and Announcements

30.8 The Participant shall not issue any press release, public announcement, or public statement regarding this Agreement or their relationship with the Company without the prior written consent of the Company.

Language

30.9 This Agreement is drafted in the English language. If the Company provides a translation of this Agreement into any other language, the English-language version shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency or ambiguity.

Headings

30.10 The headings, section titles, and numbering used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Cumulative Remedies

30.11 The rights and remedies of the Company under this Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by applicable law.

Electronic Acceptance

30.12 This Agreement may be entered into electronically through the Company's registration and purchase process. The Participant's electronic acceptance of this Agreement (by registering, purchasing an Evaluation, or using the Company's services) shall have the same legal effect as a handwritten signature.

Survival

30.13 The following sections shall survive the termination of this Agreement: Definitions and Interpretation, Intellectual Property, Limitation of Liability, Indemnification, Privacy and Data Protection, Governing Law and Jurisdiction, and General Provisions.
